KNOW NOTHING OPPOSITION TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

It is ridiculous to talk about the Know Nothing order as a Southern party. True, there are many honest but mistaken Southern men within its foolish, oathbound folds, who would spend their lives for Sourthern honor; but the order is not Southern. It has no wakeful, burning sympathy with Southern institutions. It is a cold, a lifeless, and at best, a negative Northern party, hot housed, and shaded from the burns one perty of the solutions sun. Else how did it happen that this order did most earnestly desire to hide from sight the slavery question at the Philadelphia Council? Does this show that Southern institutions was the basis of this secret order? This mammoth mushroom faction had other objects. Its constitution-its oaths-its action show us what they were. It saw no danger in the slavery question-found no frauddiscovered no injustice in Northern interference with Southern property-on this -in full view of Northern aggression and fanaticism-it only craved a cautious silence. But it was a world of evil in a few protected foreign citizens-and some two dozen Catholics-old tottering Pio Nino, and that, too, at a moment when the North was undermining the fabric of the American Constitution. Yes, like the cockles of the fable, they were to sing joyfully for deliverance from foreign influence, whilst the fire of Northern sentis ment was roasting the Southern shells .-What wants this party with a Southern union? Their policy obviously is directly opposite. A cold division of the Southern people lets in Northern treachery. It is in fact, no wonder that the Know Nothing press should exclaim against a Southern party with such principles and conduct as it has shown usno wonder it denounces the Southern man who proposes Southern combination

This order, with such objects as the have shown us, are of course, opposed to the Democracy. The Democracy, as we have said, is a Southern party. If it had one spark of Southern ardor it would be anxious for a Southern party. It would insist upon immediate union, and if from prejudice or other cause it could not join its force to the ancient party-the Democratic power-it would sink at least all extraneous issues, and plant the Souths ern standard on Southern soil, and bold ly rally Southern men to stand or fall beneath it. If it really wants a national party, and not a sectional faction, it will find it in the Democratic legians, for the Democratic party at this moment is the only church, within the Union, where all men and sections may truly worship the an entire failure. It is no where respected American Constitution .- Mobile Adver-

THE KANE EXPEDITION-THRIL LING ADVENTURE.

Some of the episodes encountered during Dr. Kane's search, have wild interest. At one time it became necessary to send a fatigue party with provisions, to assist the main party under Dr. Kane, in an attempted passage across Smith's Sound. This party was under the command of Mr. Brooks, first officer of the expedition. He was accompanied by Mr. Wilson and other volunteers. During their travel they found the ice completely impenetrable, and a snow drift at last swept widely over the fleas, and in the midst of a heavy gale from the North, the thermometer, to their dismay, sunk to fifty-seven degrees below zoro. Human nature could not support the terrible cold. Four of the party, including Mr. Brooks and Mr. Wilson, were prostrated with frozen feet, and with great difficulty three of their companions, after encountering great suffering, reached the ship and announced the condition of their comrades. Their chance of being rescued seemed extremely small. They were in the midst of a wilderness of snow, incapable of motion, protected only by a canvas tent, and with no land marks by which their posis these maimed men would have been, under ordinary circumstances, a work of difficulty, but to the slender party left at the ship, it seemed to be impossible .-Dr. Kane, with the boldness and courage which justified the warm attachment felt towards him by all under his command, in less than one hour organized a rescuing party, leaving on board only

It was only by force that they were a roused and made to proceed, as the cold seemed to have destroyed all conception of danger. A large bear met on their way was fortunately scared off by Dr. Kane, by the simple waving of his hand. They reached the ship after a walk of sixty-two hours, still dragging their companions behind them, but insensible. Dr Haves, the intelligent surgeon of the ship, from whom we obtained the particulars of his fearful adventure; received the re turning party. Two of the number died of the injuries and two others underwent amputation, who are now restored to perfect health. The condition of those who dragged the sick was lamentable. beaming light on a low couch there lay a lovely girl. Her raven tresses in clusthe lofty forehead gleamed like sculptured marble beneath the shadowy hair. A wreath of pure white rose buds had been twined by the hand of affection around her small, venus-like head. One hand lay lifeless at her side; the other held that sacred book which God ordained should be the solace of the dving. Vestal robes of classic white enclosed that fragile form. Yet amidst all this beauty a hectic spot on each fair cheek told the destroyer .-As she slept, those tints faded, leaving the soft blush of maidenhood alone. How beautiful she looked in her tranquil slumverity again overtook them. Bonsall and ber. A tread, soft and trembling, broke the touching silence of that airy room, pergladsome Flora's reign, as a tall, manly movement of the thin, wan hand, and the form of elegance and grace with quickened step approached the couch on which over. the fair girl lay. "DIED YESTERDAY."-Under this caption the localizer of the Philadelphia Sun, furnishes a few solemn but beautiful reffections .-Every day, (he says truly), is written this little instance: "Died vesterday, so and to." Every day a flower is plucked from some sunny home-a breach made in some happy circli-a jewel stolen from some treasury of love. Each day, from the summer fields of life, some harvester disappears-yes, every hour some sentinel falls from his post, and thrown from the ramparts of time into the surging waters of eternity. Even as we write, the funeral of one who "died vesterday" winds like a winter shadow along the street.

"Died yesterday." Who died ! Perhaps it was a gentle babe, sinless as an angel! pure as the zephyr's hymn-one whose laugh was as the gush of summer rills loitering in a bower of roses-whose little life was a perforth from the high throne of Jesus, that petual litery, a May-time crowning with the she, the fairest of earth's fair creatures passion flowers that never fade. Or mayhap panted after communion with the great and good, and reached forth with earnest struggle for the guerdon in the distance. But that heart of his is still now; for he "died vester-

As often as the morn we find, some flower that blushed sweetly the sunset, has withered up forever, so daily, when we rise from the bivouac to stand against our posts, we miss some brother soldier, whose cheery cry in the sieges and struggles of the past has been as fire from Heaven upon our hearts.

AN ELOQUENT SPEAKER.

The late S. S. Prentise was, perhaps, one of the most eloquent speakers of his day. The sketch of his life, which has just been published, alludes to a scene at Havre de Grace, immediately after Mr. Wise and Mr. Menifee had conderful in that respect; his digestion was good, his body sound, and he could bear every extreme variation of temperature and habit. He was never out of sorts, and at once lighted up this scene. Said he: "Fellow Citizens-by the Father of Waters at New Orleans I have said Fellow Citizens-on the banks of the Ohio I have said Fellow-Citizens-here I say Fellow-Citizens-and a thousand miles bey and this, North, thanks be to God! I can still say Fellow-Citizens!' Thus, in a single sentence, he saluted his audience, drew every man, woman and child near to him, made himself dear to them, and by a word covered the continent-by a line mapped the United States from the Gulf to the Lakes-by a greeting. warm from the heart, beaming from the countenance, depicted the whole country, its progress, development, grandeur, glory and union! Every hat was whirled in the air, every handkerchief was waving, the welkin rung with hurrals-the multitude heaved up to the stand, stood on tiptoe, and shouted cheer after cheer, as if wild with joy and mad with excitement. Never, for one moment, did he relax his grasp upon that mass of human passions. He rose higher and higher, went up and up and on and on-far, far away, like the flight of the corrier pieces. This is but a few the corrier pieces. This is but a few and on and on-far, far away, like the flight of the corrier pieces. the carrier-pigeon! It was the music of sweet ounds, and anon it was the room of the o ments. Figures bubbled up, and poured themselves forth like springs in a gushing fountain, which murmur and leap a while amld mountain, which murmur and leap a while amid mountain rocks, then run smooth and clear

onward to the ocean !"

But a darker night was abroad upon the earth. A moral darkness involved the naions in its unlighted shadows. Reason shed a faint glimmering over the minds of men, like the cold inefficient shining of a distant star. The immortality of man's spiritual nature was unknown, his relations to heaven undiscovered, and his future destiny obscured desire to multiply labor and relie in a cloud of mystery.

It was at this period that two forms etherial mould hovered the land of God's chosen people. They seemed like sister angels sent to heart on some embassay of love. The one was of majestic stature, and in the well formed limbs, which her snowy drapery hardly concealed, in her erect bearing and steady eye, exhibited the highest degree of strength and confidence. Her right arm was extended in an impressive gesture upwards where night appeared to have placed her darkest pavillion while on her left reclined her delicate companion, in form and countenance the contrast of the other, for she was drooping like a flower when moistened by refreshing dews, and her bright but troubled eve scanned the air with ardent but varying glances. Suddenly a light like the sun flashed out from the heavens, and Faith and Hope hailed with exulting songs the ascending Star of Bethlehem.

Years rolled away, and the stranger was seen in Jerusalem. He was a meek unas suming man whose happiness seemed to consist in acts of benevolence to the human race There were deep traces of sorrow on his countenance, though no one knew why he grieved for he lived in the practice of every virtue, and was loved by all the good and wise. By and by it was rumored that the stranger worked miracles! that the blind saw, the dumb spoke and the dead leaped to life at his touch! that when he commanded, the ocean moderated its chafing tide and the very thunders articulated he is the Son of God. Envy assailed him with the charge of sorcery and the voice of impious judges condemned him to death. Slowly and thickly guarded he ascended the hill of Calvary. A heavy cross bent him to the earth. But Faith leaned upon his arm, and Hope diping her pinions in his blood, mounted to the skies.

A TOUCHING SCENE.

At the celebration at King s Mountain th following sentiment was offered:

Hon. WILLIAM CAMPBELL PRESTON:-Rekindled in the grand-son, has been transmitted to us the spirit which gleamed in the grandsire. While we have assembled to honor the patriotic deeds of the one upon the battle-field, let us not forget the statesmanship and eloquence which have thrown a halo of imperishable glory around the other. In the fullness of age as in the pride and strength of manhood, South Carolina delights to do him reverence.

What follows we give in the graphic language of the reporter for the Charleston Standard.

When the reading of this sentiment and the cheers which it occasioned, were ended, an aged and feeble gentleman was seen making his way to the stand. He had once possessed a massive frame, but it was now much wasted; his hair was white, and even with the assistance of his crutch he walked with difficulty. This was all that is left of Col. William C. Preston, one of the most perfect orators this country has ever known He said: "If anything could now resume the embers of a life which, at times in my youth and manhood has perhaps burned brightly, it would be the sentiment which has just been attered. It touches the objects which are dearest to me. It points to a life which had been animated by what I thought and hoped has been elevated objects of ambition and to an ancestry whose memory has been most fondly cherished and here in these scenes of primeval grandeur, and upon the spot which it has been the fortune of that ancestry to be associated, it comes upon me with special force! but if I could ever speak," he said, "I can speak no longer, and if excuse be needed I would appeal to this," raising up his crutch "and to this," laying his hand upon locks as white as snow, "yet still my heart" laying his hand upon his breast-but the idea, whatever it may have been, could find no utterance, the tears trickled slowly down his sunken cheeks and bowing low to the audience, who were scarcely less affected, he resumed his seat.

COMMODORE STEWART.

The following note from the Secreta-Ty of the Navy to Commodore Stewart will be read with pleasure by the friends of both parties. It is in the highest degree complimentary to the Commodore, whilst its tone and sentiment does credit 40 Mr. Dobbin:

NAVY DEPARTMENT, Sept, 15, 1855.

SIR:-The Board of Naval Officers asembled under the act to promote the efficiency of the navy, approved February 28, 1855, having reported you as one of the officers who, in their judgement, should be placed on the "reserved list," on leave of absence pay; and the finding of the Board having been approved by the President, it becomes my duty to inform ea from the active service list, and placed on the "reserve list." The act, however, authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to the very satisfactory manner in which you are discharging the duties of Commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard. I assure you, Commodore, it is with pleasure I avail myself of the authority of the law to order that you remain on duty at your present post. I am sure, also, that I do not speak unadvisedly in saying that none of your fellow-citizens cherish more cordially a grateful recollection of your distinguished services than the Board who have acted from a stern sense ofduty, and the President who conceived it proper after due reflection to approve that finding. And I may add that I be lieve none will more sincerely approve my retaining you on duty.

Very respectfully, your obedient sr'vt. J. C. DOBBIN. Com. Charles Stewart, Philadelphia.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS!

An election took place in the State of New York on the 6th inst., for State officers (except Governor and Lieutenant Governor) and members of the Legislature.—The Hard-hard Soft-shells, Know nothings and Republicans, each had a ticket for State officers. The liberals or opponents of the Maine Liquor Law, supported the Soft-shell ticket. In the city, ocal officers were elected (except Mayor,) in addition to State officers, and the Whigs and Reformers, had also a ticket in the field, making six regular tickets in the city, besides a number of irregular ones.

The City has been carried by the Know Nothings; and from present indications, the State has probably gone the same way, but the returns are so much confused, that it will e several days before we can tell the result. Partial returns foot up as follows:-Knownothings, 45,000; Fusionists, 30,000; Softs, 31,000; Hards, 24,000. The Know-nothings will have a decided najority in the Assembly, but the Hards, Softs and Republicans will rule in the Senate.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION. The returns from all but nine towns in Massachusetts, give Gardner, Know Nothing; or Governor, a plurality of 15,000.

The House stands, 180 Know Nothings to 92 of all others. The Senate, as far as known, stands 23 know nothings to 16 others. WISCONSIN ELECTION.

It was argued that Congress should pass a law authorizing the rank of Lieut. General to be conferred just for the purpose of honoring Gen. Scott. But it appears now that the dollars and cents is the prominent feature and the honorary distinction has been entirely forgotten. If democrats had known that the passage of the law would have afforded the enemies of the present Administration an opportunity to misrepresent and abuse it, we imagine they would have favored the bill to the extent they did."

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for December ha been received, and it is a superior number, surpassing any previous one we have received. Great improvements will be made in this capital Magazine for 1856. The reading matter will be increased to nine hundred pages a year.

Each number will contain a steel engraving; colored fashion plate, and about forty wood engravings. The fashions are always prettier and later in "Peterson" than in any other magazine. Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, the celebrated author of "Fashion and Famine," is one of the editors, and writes exclusively for it assisted by all the best female authors. No other magazine has such stories as this: and morality and virtue are always inculcated. The terms are a dollar less than those of other magazines of similar rank, viz. $2.00 a year, instead of $3.00. To clubs the terms are cheaper yet, three copies being sent for $5.00, five copies for $7.50, and eight copies for $10.00, with a splendid premium to the person getting up the club. OF THE EXPEDITION.—It has been appounced Col. Walker and his California volunteers, aid- titled: ed by 300 native troops. Among those who figured in this expedition are Lieut. Col. Charles J. After the capture of the city, the residents held public meetings and tendered Walker the Presidency of Nicaragua, which he declined in favor of General Corrall.

Mr. Wheeler, the American Minister, having been entreated by a large number of influential citizens to proceed to Rivas, to confer with Gen. Corrall as to terms of peace and his acceptance of the presidency, finally complied, after much doubt as to the propriety of his of Salisbury and vicinity, on Tuesday the 20th interference, arriving at Rivas, and learning that Gen. Corrall was absent, Col. Wheeler attempted to return, but was prevented by the Governor, and detained two days, his quarters being guarded by a detachment of troops, nor was he released until the town was threstened with an attack. This breach of factor the part of the Corrall's forces led to a spicy correspondence between our Minister and the General. On the 22d, however, a treaty of peace was formed, and thus Walker's victory became complete.

During the progress of these events, others of importance were transpiring .- Two of the steamers with California passengers, were fired upon by the natives, and several lives lost. On the 19th, Col. Fry and Parker A. French, with sixty men, embarked on board the Virgin. which also carried the passengers and specie from California, with the intention of capturing San Carlos .- The occupants of the former however, fired upon the steamer with a cannon, and the expedition was abandoned, Col. ELECTION OF MAYOR OF CHARLESTON The introduction into South Carolina of the one-ninth. Know Nothing party, and the partial success which its advocates have had in giving it an ephemeral existence in Columbia and Charleston, have caused much regret to the friends of equal rights and constitutional obligations. We have never for a moment believed that the doctrines of the party could abide in Southern communities, and especially in South Carolina unconstitutional anti-condican il felt bound to use our pen and influence to op-

For a time our citizens have been misled by delusive charms of secrecy and good fellow ship in a novel association, and have yielded to influences that in their moments of reflection they must regret to the end of their lives Prevarication and want of candor have been admitted as principles that honorable mer might honestly adopt, and distrust and want of confidence have been sown broadcast among friends and brethren that years of dispassionate regret can never restore. We might give some curious facts in its history in Columbia, but we forbear-our object is now to congratulate the citizens of the State on the total rout of Sam's legions in South Carolina. No evasion or misrepresent tation can be attempted in relation to the recent contest in Charleston; it was an open and avowed marshalling of Samism and Anti-Samism. The nomination was boldly presented by the Know Nothings, and their organization admitted and defended by responsible names The Southern Rights, Democratic party, came out as boldly in their opposition, and in spite of the attractive influence of the oath-bound association, the battle has been fought and the victory is complete. The Whig and Know-Nothing press and speakers have repeated again the charge, that the Administration had filled the various offices with foreigners to the exclusion of all native citizens. This charge has been often denied, and abund. ant evidence in support of that denial has been spread before the country, but still the charge is reiterated.

THE RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.

ST. Louis, Nov. 2.

An excursion train, consisting of eleven cars, left here yestetday morning, on the occasion of the opening of the Pacific Railroad to Jefferson city, and while the train was crossing Gasconade river, about one hurdred miles from here; the bridge fell, precipitating ten cars a distance of nearly thirty feet in the water.

Upwards of 700 persons were on the train, including many of our first citizens. Upwards of twenty are reported to have been killed, and some twenty to fifty others badly wounded.

Thomas S. O'Sullivan, chief engineer of the road, was on the locomotive, and is among the killed. Few, if any, strangers were on the train:

The following is a list of the most prominent persons killed: Rev. Dr. Bullard, B. B. Dayton, E. C. Blackburn, Henry C. Houteau, Mann Butler, Adolph Abels, Capt C. Clases, E. C. Yosr, Geo. Ebiell, Capt. O'Flaherty, Thomas O. Sullivan, Thomas Gray.

Great Britain. The London Times has a noticeable article touching American expansion. It says the English Government are omitting no opportunity of reinforcing the West India squadron, and thus interpos sing a powerful barrier between Great Britain and the North American continent. At this moment North America is in profound peace with the whole world, yet in her ports are fitting out, at this moment, piratical and filibustering expeditions, destined to carry war and bloodshed into the dominions of unoffending neighbors. We cannot believe that those engaged in enrolling men for these desperate criminal enterprises fully contemplate the success of a descent upon Ireland, for instance, as probable, or even possible. If we can prevent such expeditions from sailing, or intercept them in mid-ocean, we shall have done much towards averting the dangers that must arise, should they be carried out to a national development.

THE OHIO DEMOCRACY.

The Democrats of Ohio do not despair. -The result of their last election shows immense gains over the preceding contest, and we are glad to perceive that they are already in the field marshalling for the canvass of 1856. The following from the Ohio Statesman of the 28th of October, shows the spirit which pervades the Buckeye Democracy:

have never known the Democratic press of Ohio to be in such glorious spirits after an election in which their opponents were successful as at the present time.

There is not a Democratic paper in Ohio which looks upon the result of the late election as a Democratic defeat!

The Whig or fusion majority against us last fall was so overwhelming that it seemed almost impossible to overcome it in one year. Yet we have broken their ranks, confused their armies, and ranks, confused their armies, and almost overcome their great majorities! When we consider the circumstances under which the campaign was commenced -the singular, yet powerful, combinations against us - the secret and oathbound cabal to organize and marshal their forces-the fraud, deception, and misrepresentation to aid in obtaining votes against us - and the many traitors in our ranks who went over to the enemy-it seeme a wonder that the fusion majority of last year was not increased.-Instead of such a result, we have gained tens of thousands of votes, and dismayed the enemy by the small majority they have obtained. Democrats of Ohio, the skies are bright! Pick your flints, and try a

ASYLUM FOR THE INSANE .- For the information of a Correspondent we state that the North Carolina Asylum for insane persons, will be ready for the reception of patients at an early period of FAYETTEVILLE MARKET .- Nov. 10, 1855 the ensuing year, and that the charge, as BACON- 14 a 00 |MOLASSESestablished by the Commissioners, will be $15 per calendar month. - Due notice will no doubt be given by the Superintendent of the precise time at which the institution will be ready to receive patients .- N. C. Standard.

THE WHEAT CROP .- According to the best estimate we have seen, the whole product of wheat in the U. S. for the year 1855, cannot exceed one hundred and ten millions of bushels. Estimating the home demand at half a pound of flour per head per day, and the number of consumers of wheaten bread at twenty-one millions, exclusive of slaves, who do not consume much wheat-there will be required ninety-four millions of bushels for home consumption.

Now, when we consider that no less than twenty millions of bushels must be retained for seed, it is evident that instead of having a surplus for export abroad, there will not be enough wheat in market to meet the home demand by four millions of bushel. But potatoes, corn buckwheat and rye have yielded abundantly, and will form so good a substitute for wheaten bread, that fifteen or twenty millions of bushels, can probably be spared for the foreign market, should prices reach a much higher figure than at present. It would seem from these facts, that our bread is to cost us as much during the coming winter, as ever before. The crops were considerably injured in several States by the dry weather last fall, and in other States by the fly—and thus our wheat crop, although large, is less than was expected.

The executors are now making a distribution among the creditors. They divide twenty-one and three quarters per centum, retaining in hand about one per cent. to defray expenses and charges in the suit against the city of New Orleans for a claim of $25,000 for counsel fees in the Gaines controversy .- Boston Telegraph.

Last Call.

I EMBRACE the present oppertunity of returning my thanks to the citizens of Salisbury and surrounding country, for the very liberal support bestowed upon me for the last two years. I must now close my books, and will be very thankful, if all those that are indebted to me will come forward and make payment without delay as indulgence will not be given. Interest will be charged on all accounts, after the first of January of each year.

DAGUERREOTYPE

IKENESSES TAKEN

AND Put up in the Neatest Possible STYLE BY

Z. S. Coffin, A LL persons wishing their Likenesses taken in a style which cannot be surpassed in this or any other State, would do well to call at THE ROWAN HOUSE, where I will remain a few days, and will take great pleasure in accommodating any and all persons who may favor me

I have reduced my prices in order that all, even those in the most humble circumstances may be enable to secure their likeness. Fail not to call as a like opportunity may never return. IJ Full satisfaction given or no remuneration demanded.

I would also say, that if any person or persons have lost a dear relative or friend, have only left one Daugerreotype, can have it copied and secure as many Likenesses from it as desired. I also set Likenesses very neatly in Breast Pins. Finger Rings and all kinds of Lockets. Instructions given in the Art and Apparatus furnished on very reasonable terms if desired. Salisbury, Nov. 13, 1855.

Valuable Town Lot FOR SALE.

BY virtue of a deed of trust, to me executed by Dr. William L. McRee, deceased, during his life time: I shall on Monday of the Superior Court for Burke County; being the 19th day of November 1855; at the door of the Court House in Morganton, expose to public sale to the highest bidder, a in the town of Morganton, one square west of four or more ACRES, on which there is a very

Brick Dwelling House nearly completed, with four large rooms below stairs and four above, with a wide passage above and below, and cost about three thousand dollars; adjoining the main building there is a fine

ONE STORY BRICK BUILDING with two rooms and a piaza in front, with all the necessary out Houses and Stables in good repair. Immediately on the corner of main street, there is a FINE

ONE STORY BRICK BUILDING, rough cast, and covered with tin, with a large and convenient STORE ROOM well fitted up, and two other suitable rooms attached; a yard tastefully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and a fine garden. Its situation being central and convenient, any person desirous of purchasing a beautiful healthy and desirable residence, would do well to attend the sale. The Western Rail Road, will be here in less than three years, and property will double in value. Should this opportunity to secure a Summer, or a permanent residence unsurpassed by any in this or any other town in North Carolina be lost, there is no probability of acquiring within the corperate limits of the town, a residence so desirable.

Considering the great difficulty in protecting ourselves and the public by prosecuting parties, we have been to a very great expense in getting up a finely executed STEEL ENGRAVED LABEL, for our bottles. We also attach to our bottles the Court House, fronting on Main and Coleage a Steel Engraved Note of Hand which we issue Streets, where Dr. McRee resided, containing as our obligation, and to counterfeit which is held to be forgery by the laws of the United States, and which parties will not dare attempt to do. The great expense attending the getting up and printing of these labels will prevent the attempt to counterfeit; thus securing to the public that the article they purchase is the genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer, manufactured by Perry Davis & Son, Sole Proprietors. The Pain Killer will be put in a new style of panel bottle with the words

Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, blown in the glass. We have discontinued the use of the 371 cent bottles and now put up only four sizes viz: 121 25, 50 cts. and $1 00 per for the Box labels specifying the contents of the box where and by whom manufactured &c. We have also added to our Pamphlet of directions and certificates a very beautifully finished presenting on the first page a very excellent like-ness of Perry Davis the original inventor of the Pain Killer. The bottle labels and one label on each box has also a correct likeness of Perry Davis which it will be impossible to counterfeit it encounterfully.

A RE receiving, and ready for wholesale and retail, a large and general assortment of Staple and Fancy, Foreign and Domestic t successfully.

We have been to this expense that the pub lic might have perfect confidence that they were getting the genuine article when they buy a botle as above described. ADVANCE PAYMENT FOR NEWSPAPERS .-- No subscriber, worth retaining, will object to the payment in advance system—Those who wanted to hear Jenny Lind sing, had to pay in advance, and what were her divinist strains compared with those which flow from editorial pens? You can,t take your seat in a rickety mail-coach, or fly from the track of a rail road car, without paying in advance for the risk of being killed. If you would hear a concert, or literary lecture, or see Tom Thumb, or the Siamese Twins, you must plank down your twenty-five, fifty, or one hundred cents, before you can pass the threshold. Nay, if any one has so little regard for his own character as to want to read Barnum,s Autobiography, he must first pay for it. And yet men hesitate and cavil about paying in advance for a paper furnished at a price on the very brink and utmost verge of prime cost.

Good Shooting.—A great shooting match, at pigeous, on the wing, took place on the 8th inst., at Cincinnati, Ohio, between W. King, of Georgia, and R. Duncan, of Louisville, Ky. Mr. Duncan was the victor. Each party had seventy-five shots, two pigeons being let out at each shot. Duncan shot 130 birds, and missed 20; King shot 126 birds and missed 21. The wager was $10,000, and the money was lost by a single bird only.

The great Southern Weekly!

THE SPECTATOR

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

A FAMILY JOURNAL OF LITERATURE AND NEWS FOR SOUTHERN READERS.

THE South has too long been dependent upon the northern cities for its periodical literature. The weekly newspapers of Boston, New York, and Philade!phia, have swept like a flood over that part of the nation south of Mason and Dixon's Line, many of them carrying with them some of the prejudices of abolitionism; and inculcating, to a greater or less extent, doctrines injurious to southern institutions. This dependence of the mass of southern readers should be thrown off-and it is believed would have been long ago, if there had been facilities in the South for the publication of first class literary papers. THE SPECTATOR.

Is published by a gentleman who has long been connected with some of the southern dailies, and has been undertaken to supply this wantthat of a high-toned weekly paper OF SOUTHERN INTEREST AND CHARACTER.

The general plan of the paper is as follows; It has eight pages; three of which are filled with the best articles on Literature, Science, and the Arts; one to the editor's comments upon passing themes; one to general news, foreign and domestic; one to the interests of the Farmerthe information on this page will be mainly derived from the Agricultural Bureau of the U. S. Patent Office]; one to a synopsis of the operations of the Departments of the Government; plan which will be rigidly adhered to, and which is unequalled by any paper in the country, North

AYER'S PILLS.

A NEW and singularly successful remedy for the cure of all Bilious diseases — Costiveness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Fevers, Gout, Humors, Nervousness, Irritability, Inflammations, Headache, Pains in the Breast, Side, Back, and Limbs, Female Complaints, &c. &c. Indeed, tery few are the diseases in which a Purgative Medicine is not more or less required, and much sickness and suffering might be prevented, if a harmless but effectual Cathartic were more freely used. No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails; besides it soon generates serious and often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. often fatal diseases, which might have been avoided by the timely and judicious use of a good purgative. This is alike true of Colds, Feverish symptoms, and Bilious derangements. They all tend to become or produce the deep seated and formidable distempers which load the hearses all over the land. Hence a reliable family physic is of the first importance to the public health, and this Pill has been perfected with consummate skill to meet that demand. An extensive trial of its virtues by Physicians, Professors, and Patients, has shown results surpassing any thing hitherto known of any medicine. Cures have been effected beyond belief, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and have been effected beyond behef, were they not substantiated by persons of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth.

Among the many eminent gentlemen who have testified in favor of these Pills, we may mention:

Dr. A. A. HAYES, Analytical Chemist, of Boston, and State Assayer of Massachusetts, whose high supports and property is ordered by the professional character is endorsed by the Hon. Edward Everett, Senator of the U.S. ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker of the House

ROBERT C. WINTHROP, EX-Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Abbott Lawrence, Minister Plen. to England.

† John B. Fitzpatrick, Cath. Bishop of Boston. Also, Dr. J. R. Chilton, Practical Chemist, of New York City, endorsed by

HON. W. L. Marcy, Secretary of State.

WM. B. Astor, the richest man in America.

S. Leland & Co., Propt's of the Metropolitan Hotel and others. Hotel, and others.

Did space permit, we could give many hundred certificates, from all parts where the Pills have been used, but evidence even more convincing than the experience of eminent public men is found in their effects upon trial.

These Pills, the result of long investigation and study, are offered to the public as the best and most complete which the present state of medical science can afford. They are compounded not of the drugs themselves, but of the medicinal virtues only of Vegetable remedies, extracted by chemical process in a state of purity, and combined together in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in such a manner as to insure the best results. This system of composition for medicines has been found in the Cherry Pectoral and Pills both, to produce a more efficient remedy than had hitherto been obtained by any process. The reason is perfectly obtained with more or less of acrimonious and injurious qualities, by this each individual virtue only that is desired for the curative effect is present. All the inert and obnoxious qualities of each substance employed are left behind, the curative virtues only being retained. Hence it is self-evident the effects should prove as they have proved more purely remedial, and the Pills a surer, more powerful antidote to disease than any other medicine known to the world.

As it is frequently expedient that my medicine should be taken under the counsel of an attending Physician, and as he could not properly judge of a remedy without knowing its composition, I have supplied the accurate Formulæ by which both my Pectoral and Pills are made to the whole body of Practitioners in the United States and British Amer-

Practitioners in the United States and British American Provinces. If, however, there should be any one who has not received them, they will be promptly forwarded by mail to his address.

Of all the Patent Medicines that are offered, how few would be taken if their composition was known! Their life consists in their mystery. I have no mysteries.

The composition of my preparations is laid open to all men, and all who are competent to judge on the subject freely acknowledge their convictions of their intrinsic merits. The Cherry Pectoral was pronounced by scientific men to be a wonderful medicine before its effects were known. Many eminent Physicians have declared the same thing of my Pills, and even more confidently, and are will-ing to certify that their anticipations were more than realized by their effects upon trial.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Being sugar wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
